Preface

This project is a personal undertaking to rewrite and annotate the Holy Bible for study, reflection, and understanding. The primary text used throughout is the New King James Version (NKJV), though other translations may occasionally be referenced where clarity, variation, or historical interest requires. Each book of the Bible is treated as a separate chapter, and each begins with a brief summary outlining its themes or narrative structure.

The scripture is presented verse by verse using a custom format that allows for inline references and annotations. These annotations include (but are not limited to) historical background, translation notes, literary and cultural context, scientific references, theological or reflective questions, and general comments. Each of these various types are also color-coded for ease of reference/reading. They are marked inline with a custom symbol (e.g., ⋆) and collected directly below the verse for easy association.

This is an ongoing and evolving project. At the time of writing this preface, it is highly incomplete and is being developed incrementally. As updates, corrections, and expansions are made, the version number of the document will be incremented accordingly. This allows for tracking progress and identifying updated material across future iterations. This work is intended for personal study and is freely shareable for non-commercial purposes.

Various Subtle Formatting Meanings

There are various subtle formatting techniques which have specific meanings, These are outlined below:

- As done in the NKJV, scriptural words which are italicized are 'added', but are not meant to change any meaning - only to provide better understanding with our modern English language. Within the commentary and notes, italics are instead used as they typically are in standard English writings - for emphasis or proper reference formatting.
- Scripture numbers are in bold for ease of finding.
- Words that Jesus spoke are "quoted and in red."
- Names are formatted differently than normal words to stand out (e.g., Moses and Abraham).

Note Types and Symbols

The following is a list of annotation types used throughout this work. Each note is marked with a specific icon and color to indicate its category and purpose:

History - : Provides historical or cultural background relevant to the verse or passage, such as ancient customs, geopolitical context, or historical events.

Translation - : Offers insight into the original language, alternative translations, or meanings of words and phrases from the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek texts.

Context - : Highlights the literary, narrative, or cultural context of a passage, aiding in its interpretation and situational relevance.

Science - : Connects the passage to scientific ideas, natural phenomena, or the relationship between scriptural content and modern science.

Question - : Poses theological, philosophical, or reflective questions raised by the verse, encouraging deeper thought and study.

Sermon - : Presents insights, illustrations, or applications drawn from sermons. These notes may include quotes, thematic connections, or interpretations offered by preachers, providing a homiletic perspective that complements the text.

Cross-reference - : Identifies connections to other passages of Scripture, highlighting thematic, prophetic, or textual parallels that provide interpretive insight or support broader biblical understanding.

Geography - : Provides geographical information related to the passage, such as locations, travel routes, terrain features, and regional significance. This can aid in contextualizing the narrative within its physical setting.

Doctrine - : Highlights theological principles, doctrines, or key insights derived from the passage. These notes may address topics such as the nature of God, salvation, sin, covenant, or other foundational beliefs, helping readers engage with the text theologically.

Literary - : Draws attention to the literary qualities of the text, such as poetic structure, metaphor, genre, parallelism, or symbolic language. These notes help identify stylistic features that shape interpretation and highlight the artistry of the biblical text.

Philosophy - : Engages with metaphysical, existential, or interpretive ideas raised by the passage. These notes may reflect on questions of meaning, purpose, reality, or the nature of existence from a philosophical or worldview-oriented perspective. While not strictly theological or doctrinal, they aim to deepen reflection by considering how the text interfaces with broader human inquiry.

Timeline - : Represents some sort of time marker, a reference to a historical time-frame, timeline, or passage of time since the beginning of creation.

Archaeology - : Provides insights from archaeological findings, such as artifacts, inscriptions, or excavated sites, that illuminate the historical, cultural, or geographical setting of the passage, grounding the narrative in material evidence.

Note - : A general-purpose note for observations, clarifications, or commentary that doesn't fall into one of the above categories.

Translation - : A different translation of the verse.

Referencing and Sources

Throughout this work, I include notes and annotations drawn from a variety of sources. Where references are uncommon, specialized, or potentially unfamiliar, I have made an effort to cite them directly in the notes. However, extremely common reference materials, such as general-use dictionaries, Wikipedia, or widely known facts, are not individually cited. My goal is to maintain clarity without overburdening the text with unnecessary attributions, while still giving appropriate credit where due.

Given the potential volume of references involved, not every source will be perfectly accurate. However, the aim is to identify and cross-check sources that corroborate one another to improve reliability. I consistently strive to reference high-quality material and present information that reflects careful consideration and verification. That said, with certain subjects, such as Hebrew translation nuances, this level of validation is not always possible or straightforward, and in such cases I will primarily rely on the work and interpretation of external sources.

Important Disclaimer

Because I am manually typing and writing each scripture by hand - there is a very large chance for human error. Although I will try to remain diligent and record all scriptures accurately, at times, typos and potentially even missed lines may exist. This is simply the fallibility of being human. This is entirely unintentional and will be fixed and corrected as any mistakes are found or pointed out. If you (as a reader) finds any of these, please bring them to the attention of the author.

Genesis

Summary: This book covers the earliest times of man-kinds history, starting at the creation of man. The story continues through the life of NOAH and his descendants, the Great Flood, and the generations after the great flood. This includes the life of ABRAHAM and his descendants - through the life of JOSEPH.

Chapter 1: The History of Creation

a - : The word used here is 'Elohim' (Strong's 430[1, 3]) which is plural and means 'God, gods, divine beings, or judges.' This same word is used throughout this entire chapter.

b - : The word earth is often not capitalized when translated from scriptures in versions like the NKJV. This is because it is not the proper noun referring to Earth, but that of matter, dirt, ground, or the physical qualities which are on Earth.

- : "In the beginning" implies that there was a beginning. "The heavens" could refer to the entire cosmos or even space itself. "The earth" could refer to the entirety of matter within the universe or simply bring the focus to earth (while not explicitly excluding anything outside of earth).

Beginning of day one

a - : The word for "was" (Strong's 1961[1]) can be translated as became or come to pass.

a - : If translated as became, this could imply that earth was something before. This suggests that there could have been a passage of time before creation and the following events. It could either then mean that there was a possible history of Earth before the following creation events, or it could simply be that after the creation mentioned in Genesis 1:1, earth was in this state. This idea supports a pre-existing physical earth before the creation described in the following scriptures. This is consistent with modern scientific understanding of the age of the earth.

b - : "Hovering" establishes an Earth-based perspective, with the narrative describing creation from Earth's surface, focusing on transforming chaos to order.

3Then God said, "Let there be light[a]"; and there was light.

a - : Diffuse sunlight through a thick early atmosphere could create a day-night cycle before celestial bodies are visible.

4And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness. 5God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. So the evening[a] and the morning[b] were the first day.[c] a - : The word for "evening" (Strong's 6153[1]) is also translated sunset.

b - : The word for "morning" (Strong's 1242[1]) means sunrise or the end of night (start of the day).

b - : The "evening and the morning" are established as the time measurement for a day. This is a foundational basis for time keeping throughout the Bible that is important to remain consistent on. The time period for a day begins at sunset, and ends the following sunset (encompassing an evening and a morning).

Beginning of day two

6Then God said, "Let there be a firmament[a] in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters."

a - 🔤: The word for "firmament" (Strong's 7549[1]) can sometimes be interpreted as a solid (This is one scripture that is used to suggest the earth has a solid dome around it), but more appropriately means an expanse, the heavens or the sky.

a - 🧪: This corresponds to a stable atmosphere forming, separating surface waters from vapor and creating an atmosphere for the earth.

7Thus God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament[a] from the waters which were above the firmament[b]; and it was so.

a - 🌊: These would be the water on the ground - seas, puddles, ponds, rivers, etc.

b - 🌊: This would be the water in the sky - clouds, vapor, etc.

8And God called the firmament Heaven[a], so the evening and the morning were the second day.

a - 🔤: There are multiple different words commonly translated to "heaven". In this context (Strong's 8064[1]), the word simply means the sky.

Beginning of day three ⬇ 9Then God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear"; and it was so. 10And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good. 11Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whos seed is in itself, on the earth"; and it was so.

- 🧪: Early vegetation (e.g., algae) could grow easily with diffuse light from day 1, before the sun's visibility. Given perpetual cloud coverage, plants could also still flourish if enough diffuse light made it through the cloud coverage. Even a thick hazy atmosphere which would obstruct the view of stars and the sun could still allow enough photons through for photosynthesis to occur (Many plants in rain forests thrive in these conditions while shaded by other trees).

- 🌱: Plants before the sun's visibility (day 4) fits a sequence from earth's perspective with a potential hazy atmosphere not yet revealing celestial bodies.

12And the earth brought forth grass[a], the herb that yields seed according to its kind[b], and the tree that yields fruit, whos seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

a - 🧪: If the atmosphere was thick hazy (at this point) such that light could not easily get through, the plants would naturally clear this, by filtering the air, allowing a natural progression from this to the next day's events of the atmosphere clearing.

b - 🧪: The phrase "according to its kind" is of great importance. This states that fruit will always create seeds according to its kind, and not of another kind. This has always been observed to be true, and even in cases of cross-breading - the fruit yields seed according to its kind, and not of other kinds.

13So the evening and the morning were the third day.

Beginning of day four ⬇ 14Then God said, "Let there be lights in the firmament[a] of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and seasons[b], and for days and years;

a - 🧪: As the atmosphere clears, the stars, sunlight, and moonlight become visible through the atmosphere, which creates the lights in the sky.

b - 🌊: The "signs and seasons" establishes a time-keeping system for the Biblical Holy Days.

15and let them be for lights in the firmaments of the heavens to give light on the earth"; and it was so. 16Then God made two great lights[a]: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also[b].

a - 🧪: This is the same thought/day as Genesis 1:14, where the stars become visible through the atmosphere. From the perspective of earth, as the atmosphere clear, the sun and moon become visible and appears as though they are new creations.

b - 🧪: If we consider the sequence of events here in correlation to modern day understanding (which would of course be very limited compared to God), this sequence of earth being created in six days suggests that either the entire universe was created in this sequence to demonstrate Gods power and capabilities, or that the rest of the creation (outside of earth) was already created (which perfectly correlates to the gap theory mentioned in Genesis 1:2). This would also align with modern theories of the age of the universe and other timelines.

b - ❓: If the gap theory is not close to accurate, why would God have taken six days to create earth, when he was able to create the rest of the universe ("the stars also") in less than a day? This could either be explained by the above note, or by God outlining the importance of earth by timing these events in this way. But as mentioned in previous creation events, things would be more consistent if this latter thought was not the case.

17 God set them in the firmament[a] of the heavens to give light on the earth, a - ♾️: One interesting and strange interpretation of this could be that there is a larger firmament around our solar system where the stars reside. There are some who surmise that we live within a simulation - which would align with the idea that our physical bodies and existence are temporary. This firmament is then like the outer shell of the simulation, where all the stars are actually just simulated data we've been observing - designed to give the exact appearance of a vast universe but actually just a shell that we will never surpass to prove otherwise. This would literally make our solar system the universe itself and everything else we see is just an illusion. This would align with the literal seven-day creation while addressing the question mentioned in Genesis 1:16.

18 and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. 19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

Beginning of day five ⬇️

20 Then God said, "Let the waters abound with an abundance of living creatures, and let the birds fly above the earth across the face of the firmament of the heavens." 21 So God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. 22 And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." 23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Beginning of day six ⬇️

24 Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, each according to its kind[a]"; and it was so.

a - 🧪: The "according to its kind," distinction is of great importance. What is seen in nature is that each animal only ever gives birth or creates offspring of something which is according to its kind. This is similar to the idea of species, except not quite as constricted.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

- 🧪: It's possible to interpret this in some interesting ways based on the current day understanding of the ecosystem and interdependence of all the plants, animals, bugs, etc. Since many things today are shown to be interdependent (such as the plants requiring insects for pollination or animals requiring plants for food), the literal six-day period of earths creation would make the most sense because of both the order that things appear, and the dependence of the various things that are coming into existence. The short time period would be required by the interdependence of the various life forms, whereas the order they appear in would make sense from an evolution perspective. There are many fields of study that attempt to show that various organisms are similar to each-other in a way that connects them. However, It would make sense that God would create new things using elements from the previous things he made - or have his creations build off of others (as any computer programmer would do for example).

26 Then God said, "Let Us[a] make man in Our[b] image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

a - : The word "Us" here is translated into a plural English word. this supports there being at least two beings in the God family as seen in John 1:1.

b - : The word "Our" here is translated into a plural English word.

[27]So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. [28]Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply[a]; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

a - : Although this doesn't seem like a direct commandment, it is repeated throughout the Bible as something that God tells men to do - specifically men who follow after God. It is clear that God wants those following His words to be fruitful and multiply their generations.

[29]And God said, "See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whos fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.

- : There's an apparent contradictory claim here against some modern (mis)understandings. Many seeds contain cyanide or cyanide producing compounds, which suggest they are not made for food. I wrote a sermonette message about this titled Apple Seeds[2], where I demonstrate that these compounds are actually perfectly safe and the human body is designed explicitly to break them down in normal quantities.

[30]Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food; and it was so. [31]Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Chapter 2: Life in The Garden of Eden

[1]Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished.

- : This scripture, which directly follows the concluding creation of earth and man, could mean that these described creation events were the last event needed for God to have fulfilled what he was making. If a gap-theory is correct, this implies that the earth was the final stone to place. If not, then it could have just been that this simply concludes the creation.

[2]And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done. [3]Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

- : This establishes the seventh day as a sanctified day of rest for the first time - as that is what God himself did.

[4]This is the history of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD[a] God made the earth and the heavens, a - : This is the Tetragrammaton, which is the four-letter proper Hebrew name of God, YHWH. This is the first time it appears. It means 'the existing One' (Strong's Concordance 3068 [1]) [5]before any plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the Lord God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground; [6]but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground. [7]And the LORD God formed[a] man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

a - : The word for "formed" here implies personal involvement.

[8]The LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed. [9]And out of the ground the LORD God made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life[a] was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

a - : Here we see that the tree of life is separate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. This is referenced again in Genesis 3:22.

[10]Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it parted and became four river-heads. [11]The name of the first is Pishon[a]; it is the one which skirts the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

a - 🔤: The river "Pishon" (Strong's 6376[3]) is a Hebrew proper noun. This term only occurs in the Bible once.

12And the gold of that land is good. Bdellium[a] and the onyx[b] stone are there.

a - 🔤: The word "Bdellium" (Strong's 916[3]) is a fragrant resin similar to myrrh.

b - 🔤: The word "onyx" (Strong's 7718[3]) is commonly translated as onyx, but more accurately represents a precious gem or stone (perhaps onyx). It is often associated with beauty, value, and it was used in the high priest's breastplate and other sacred objects.

13The name of the second river is Gihon[a]; it is the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.

a - 🔤: The name "Gihon" (Strong's 1521[3]) suggests a river that bursts forth or flows abundantly.

14The name of the third river is Hiddekel[a]; it is the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates[b].

a - 🔤: The name "Hiddekel" (Strong's 2313[3]) is often identified as the modern day Tigris River, which flows through present-day Turkey and Iraq. Hiddekel is an ancient Mesopotamian river name.

a - 🏛: "The Tigris River, along with the Euphrates, is one of the two major rivers of Mesopotamia, a region often referred to as the "Cradle of Civilization." This area is historically significant as it is believed to be one of the earliest centers of human civilization, with ancient cities such as Nineveh and Babylon located along its banks. The Tigris has been a vital water source for agriculture and trade throughout history.[3]" b - 🔤: The name "Euphrates" (Strong's 6578[3]) is translated from the Hebrew term Perath which is frequently mentioned as a geographical landmark and boundary marker. It is one of the most significant rivers in the ancient Near East.

15Then[a] the Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it[b].

a - 🍃: This verse seems somewhat redundant when considered alongside Genesis 2:8. The structure of the text reflects a Hebrew narrative style and this verse serves to emphasize that God is assigning Adam responsibilities and not just placing him in the garden.

b - 🟦: God placed man in the garden to work. This is something intended for man to do. Tending the garden also implies taking care of it and not abusing it. This is the intent of our human-nature relationship.

16And the Lord God commanded the man[a], saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; a - 📖: This is the first example of a commandment, where the following verse indicates an associated consequence.

17but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat[a] of it you shall surely die[b]."

a - 🔤: The phrase "for in the day that you eat" sounds, in English, like it could be a known statement of the future - almost like God is saying, when this inevitably happens, here are the consequences. In Hebrew, a verb can be in perfect tense, which implies that it has been completed. This phrase is in the perfect tense, but is referring to a future event - which could imply that it is certain to happen. In Hebrew, the perfect tense can sometimes be used prophetically or futuristically to indicate certainty about something that will happen. This is often determined contextually[5].

b - 🔤: As written in English, the phrase "you shall surely die" seems to suggest that Adam would die within the day or nearly immediately. However, some would say this can be better translated as "dying, you shall die,"[4] or "In dying you will die," which would suggest this would only be the start of the process of dying.

Creation of Woman ⬇

18And the Lord God said, "It is not good that a man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him."
19Out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.

- 🍃: Some see this and the surrounding scriptures as a contradiction to the creation in Genesis 1. However, there is no time references in this scripture. This is clearly following a literary style of expanding on other events that have already been described. This is more obviously seen in some later scriptures such as Genesis 2:15 and Genesis 2:20, which is pivotal to understanding that these are not contradicting accounts - but rather building and expanding on each other.

[20]So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him[a].

a - : This initially seems redundant, as this was mentioned in Genesis 2:18. However, it is a Hebrew style of writing where a thing is introduced and then further outlined and expanded upon. This is the exact same literary device mentioned in Genesis 2:15.

[21]And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. [22]Then the rib which the Lord God had taken from man He made into a woman, and brought her to the man. [23]And Adam said:

"This is now bone of my bones And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Woman, Because she was taken out of Man."

[24]Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh[a].

a - : This is the creation of marriage.

[25]And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

Chapter 3: The Temptation and Fall of Man

[1]Now the serpent[a] was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman, "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden'?"

a - : In Revelation 12:9, the "serpent of old" is referred to as "the Devil and Satan." This is well known to be this serpent here in Genesis.

[2]And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; [3]but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden God has said, 'You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it[a], lest you die.' "

a - : Did God say "not shall you touch it" or was this added by the woman? Perhaps they added this in their minds as a safeguard to keep them from even being tempted by the tree. For if they never touch it, they surely would fulfill never eating it.

[4]Then the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die[a].

a - : This is the first example of a lie within the Bible. Satan uses a single word to change a truth to a lie. He then follows it up with what appears to be truth (though they may not know that) to both entice and persuade the woman that he knows things they do not - that God was not telling them the whole truth.

[5]For God knows[a] that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil[b]."

a - : This is a tactic of deception. Satan is making it seem like God knows something that he may be intentionally keeping from them.

b - : To go against God is the definition of sin, which is an evil that they will immediately know.

[6]So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes[a], and a tree desirable to make one wise[b], she took of its fruit[c], and ate. She also gave to her husband with her[d], and he ate.

a - : When questioning the commandment to not eat the tree, the first thing the woman noticed was that this tree fit other characteristics of the trees which they were allowed to eat of.

b - : The serpents words were interpreted as a good thing for the woman. She took the information she was given and saw it as good.

c - : When she took of the fruit, she would have noticed that she did not immediately die. In Genesis 3:2, she said she could not touch it lest they die - which they likely added to Gods commandment. When seeing that she did not die from touching it, she could have deceived herself into thinking that they were not told what is true, which then made the decision to eat of it easier to come to.

d - : The phrase "her husband with her" perhaps makes it seem (at least how it appears in English) like Adam was with her the entire time as this was happening or at least with her when she took of the tree.

[7]Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings. [8]And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day[a], and ADAM and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God. among the trees of the garden.

a - : This makes it seem like a regular and completely normal occurrence that God is walking around the garden with them.

[9]Then the LORD God called to ADAM and said to him, "Where are you?" [10]So he said, "I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself." [11]And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?" [12]Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate." [13]And the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." [14]So the LORD God said to the serpent:

"Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust All the days of your life. [15]And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel."

[16]To the woman He said:

"I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception In pain you shall bring forth children; Your desire shall be for your husband, And he shall rule over you."

[17]Then to ADAM He said, "Because you have heeded the voice of your wife[a], and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, 'you shall not eat of it':

Cursed is the ground for your sake; In toil you shall eat of it All the days of your life.

a - : This echos the concept that we are held personally accountable for our actions and we can not let others pressure our decisions. God gave ADAM his wife, and yet God still held ADAM to a standard of responsibility for his actions.

[18]Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you, And you shall eat the herb of the field. [19]In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread Till you return to the ground, For our of it you were taken; For dust you are And to dust you shall return."

[20]And ADAM called his wife's name EVE[a], because she was the mother of all living.

a - : The word/name 'EVE' (Strong's 2332[1]) means 'life,' or 'living.'

- : Some trains of thought argue that there were other people on earth at this time that did not come from ADAM and EVE - this scripture directly disproves that.

[21]Also for ADAM and his wife, the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them. [22]Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever" – [23]therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. [24]So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Chapter 4: CAIN Murders ABEL

[1]Now ADAM knew[a] EVE his wife, and she conceived and bore CAIN [b], and said, "I have acquired a man from the LORD."

a - : To know someone in the Bible (as it is used like this) means to have sexual relations with them.

b - : The word/name 'CAIN' (Strong's 7014[1]) means 'possession.'

[2]Then she bore again, this time his brother ABEL [a]. Now ABEL was a keeper of sheep, but CAIN was a tiller of the ground.

a - : The word/name 'ABEL' (Strong's 1893[1]) means 'breath.'

- : There is an implied passage of time in this story which is definitely not explicitly stated. First, it does not state that these are the only children Adam and Eve bore. It also states the professions of Cain and Abel, which implies they had to have grown up and began working (babies cannot work). The directly implies that some unknown (potentially very long) amount of tie has passed during these events.

3 And in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of fruit of the ground to the Lord. 4 Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat. And the Lord respected Abel and his offering, 5 but He did not respect Cain and his offering[a]. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

a - : In 1 John 3:12, we see that Cain's works were evil - referring to his works outside of the act of killing Abel. It also says that Abel's works were righteous. This is likely why his offering here was not respected.

6 So the Lord said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? 7 If you do well, will you not be accepted?[a] And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door[b]. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it."

a - : The context here is a little unclear. Is this perhaps Gods way of saying "what did you expect to happen? You were not doing what you are suppose to and you knew better" (aka: typical stubborn human behavior).

b - : This could refer to a sin offering. If Cain needed to give a sin offering, but did not, God would have been displeased. Perhaps Cain did something that he was not suppose to but acted as if everything was fine. This is supported in 1 John 3:12, where it specifically says Cain's works were evil, and that is why he eventually murdered Abel.

8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him. 9 Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" 10 And He said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground.

- : The blood crying out from the ground has an implication of God having a connection to our blood (or soul) after we are physically dead. This is obviously important, as it shows that some part of us remains in death.

11 So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond[a] you shall be on the earth."

a - : A vagabond (in English) is a person who wanders from place to place without a home or job - having no settled home[6]. This is a fitting term since it says later in Genesis 4:16 that he dwelt in the land of Nod, which means wandering.

13 And Cain said to the Lord. "My punishment is greater than I can bear! 14 Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground: I shall be hidden from Your face: I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me." 15 And the Lord said to him, "Therefore, whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold." And the Lord set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

The Family Of Cain

16 Then Cain went out from the presence of the Lord and dwelt in the land of Nod[a] on the east of Eden.

a - : The word/name 'Nod' (Strong's 5113[1]) means 'wandering.'

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch[a]. And he built a great city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son–Enoch.

a - : The word/name 'Enoch' (Strong's 2585[1]) means 'dedicated.'

18 To Enoch was born Irad[a]; and Irad begot Mehujael[b], and Mehujael begot Methusael[c], and Methusael begot Lamech[d].

a - : The word/name 'Irad' (Strong's 5897[1]) means 'fleet.'

b - : The word/name 'Mehujael' (Strong's 4232[1]) means 'smitten by God.'

c - : The word/name 'Methusael' (Strong's 4967[1]) means 'who is of God.'

c - : The word/name 'Lamech' (Strong's 4232[1]) means 'powerful.'

[19]Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah. [20]And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. [21]His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute. [22]And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah. [23]Then Lamech said to his wives:

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech! For I have killed a man for wounding me, Even a young man for hurting me. [24]If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

Adam Has A New Son: Seth

[25]And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, "For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed." [26]And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh. Then men began to call on the name of the Lord.

Chapter 5: The Family Of Adam

[1]This is the book of the genealogy[a] of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

a - : Only the names of those leading to the genealogy of Noah are given. The others are not mentioned, but it is implied they exist in Genesis 5:4, Genesis 5:7, Genesis 5:10 and other scriptures.

[2]He created them male and female, and blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created. [3]And Adam [a] lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

a - : The word/name 'Adam' (Strong's 121[1]) means 'red.' Other sources say this means 'from red soil', 'son of the red Earth', or similar translations.

[4]After he begot Seth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years; and he had sons and daughters. [5]So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died. [6]Seth[a] lived one hundred and five years, and begot Enosh.

a - : The word/name 'Seth' (Strong's 8352[1]) means 'compensation.'

[7]After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters. [8]So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died. [9]Enosh[a] lived ninety years, and begot Cainan.

a - : The word/name 'Enosh' (Strong's 583[1]) means 'man.'

[10]After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters. [11]So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died. [12]Cainan[a] lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel.

a - : The word/name 'Cainan' (Strong's 7018[1]) means 'possession.'

[13]After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters. [14]So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died. [15]Mahalalel[a] lived sixty-five years, and begot Jared.

a - : The word/name 'Mahalalel' (Strong's 4111[1]) means 'praise of God.'

[16]After he begot Jared, Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters. [17]So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died. [18]Jared[a] lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot Enoch.

a - : The word/name 'Jared' (Strong's 3382[1]) means 'descent.'

[19]After he begot Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years and had sons and daughters. [20]So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died. [21]Enoch[a] lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah.

a - : The word/name 'Enoch' (Strong's 2585[1]) means 'dedicated.'

[22]After he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked with God three hundred years, and had sons and daughters. [23]Soo all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. [24]And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

- ❓: This scripture breaks the pattern seen with all the other members of this genealogy. With the others, their total days are numbered and they eventually die. However, with Enoch, it simply says 'God took him' instead of 'he died.' What does this mean? Does this mean that God took him to another place, or that God took him in death early? Perhaps this can be a distinction between dying of old age (like the others) and dying of unnatural causes (in this case). This somehow has to fit with Hebrews 9:27 and John 3:13.

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Methuselah' (Strong's 4968[1]) means 'man of the dart.'

[26]After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters. [27]So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died. [28]Lamech[a] lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son.

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Lamech' (Strong's 3929[1]) means 'powerful.'

[29]And he called his name Noah[a], saying, "This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord has cursed."

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Noah' (Strong's 5146[1]) means 'rest.'

[30]After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters. [31]So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died. [32]And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot Shem[a], Ham[b], and Japheth[c].

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Shem' (Strong's 8035[1]) means 'name.'

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Ham' (Strong's 2526[1]) means 'hot.'

a - 🔤: The word/name 'Japheth' (Strong's 3315[1]) means 'opened.'

Chapter 6: The Wickedness And Judgment of Man

[1]Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, [2]that the sons[a] of God saw the daughters of men[b], that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

a - 🔤: The word 'sons' here (Strong's 1121[1]) means children, people, grandsons, youth, etc. Since Adam was directly created by God, any of his descendants could fall into this category. The 'sons of God' distinction could be used to specifically refer to people who were following Gods and not those who strayed from his ways.

b - 🔤: The word for 'men' here (Strong's 120 [1]) refers to mankind, but make it clear that the daughters referenced here are from a different group of people than the 'sons of God' were. This could simple be to differentiate between the lineage of Cain as opposed to another lineage of Adam.

[3]And the Lord said, "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years."

- 🌱: Since it is obvious that the days of man were much longer than 120 throughout the prior parts of Genesis, this must be setting up and explaining the time after the flood (as also seen in the next verse).

[4]There were giants[a] on the earth in those days, and also afterward[b], when the sons of God[c] came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

a - 🔤: This term for 'giant' (Strong's 5303[1]), is also known as 'the Nephilim' has a bit of debate around it. Regardless, it means that there were a group of people with unusually large size and strength.

b - 🌱: This is likely referring to after the flood, since we also see giants mentioned after this time period in Numbers 13:33.

c - ♾️: Some argue that the 'sons of God' here is angels (or demons), and thus the spirit beings created offspring with humans. The word for sons here does not really fit that at all (see the note on Genesis 6:2).

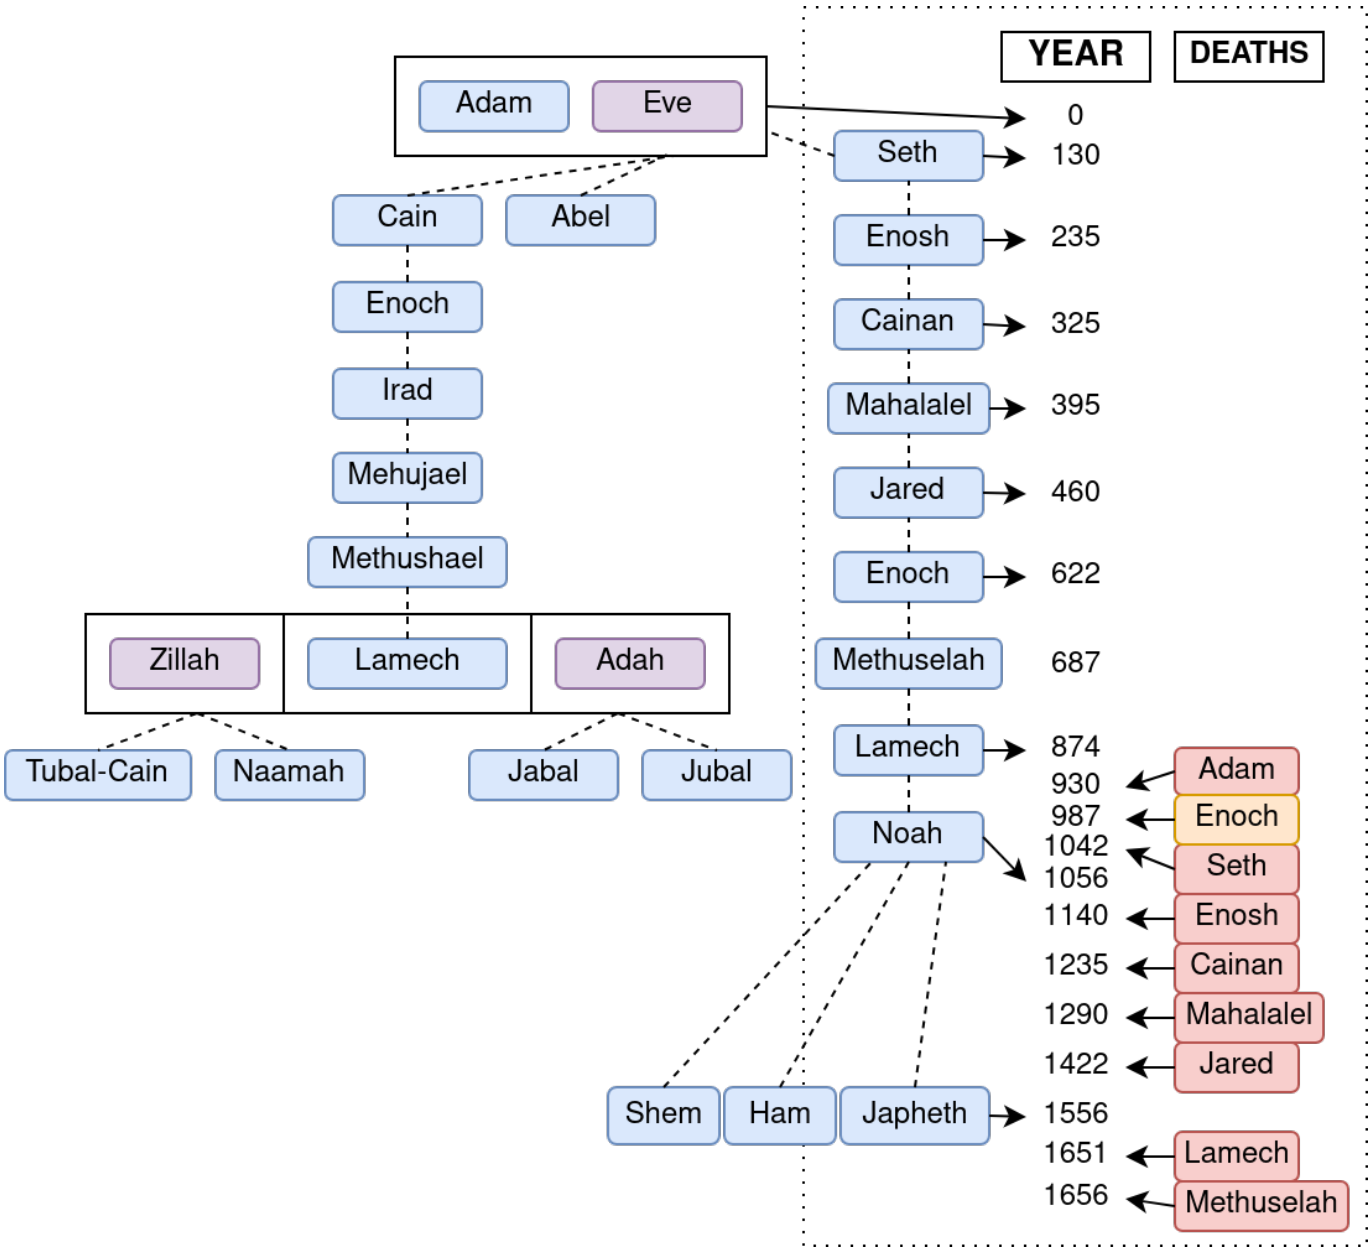

Figure 1.5.1: This is a diagram showing the genealogy of the family of Adam's as outlined in Genesis 4 and Genesis 5. It ends with Noah's three children. Males are depicted in blue, while females are pink. Births are depicted as branching off from the mother. Marriages are depicted with a rectangular border around the couple. The genealogy between Seth and Noah have timeline markers showing the year of birth and death (death is shown for most, but not all). Enoch (orange) is a somewhat special case here as it does not explicitly say when/if he died (see Genesis 5:24). This diagram was created by me using the draw.io tool [7].

[5]Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. [6]And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. [7]So the LORD said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them." [8]But NOAH found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

NOAH Pleases God

[9]This is the genealogy of NOAH. NOAH was a just man, perfect in his generations. NOAH walked with God. [10]And NOAH begot three sons: SHEM, HAM, and JAPHETH. [11]The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. [12]So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

The Ark Prepared

[13]And God said to NOAH, "The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth. [14]Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch. [15]And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits[a], its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

a - : A cubit is an ancient unit of length, approximately equal to the distance from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger. It is approximately 18 inches. This would make the ark about 450 ft × 75 ft × 45 ft [16]You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third decks. [17]And behold, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; and everything that is on the earth shall die. [18]But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark–you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. [19]And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. [20]Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive. [21]And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them." [22]Thus NOAH did; according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

Chapter 7: The Great Flood

[1]Then the LORD said to NOAH, "Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation. [2]You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female; [3]also seven each of birds of the air, make and female, to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth. [4]For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made." [5]And NOAH did according to all that the LORD commanded him. [6]NOAH was six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.

- : NOAH being six hundred would put this at year 1656 (see Figure 1.5.1).

[7]So NOAH, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood. [8]Of clean animals, of animals that are unclean, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth, [9]two by two they went into the ark to NOAH, male and female, as God had commanded NOAH. [10]And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth. [11]In the six hundredth year of NOAH's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month[a], on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up[b], and the windows of heaven were opened.

a - : This date is very specific. Is there any significance (other than the obvious contextual happenings) of this date?

b - : This phrase, 'fountains of the great deep were broken up,' make it seem like torrential water came from within the earth. This would sense with the context of all living things on earth being destroyed in the flood - as opposed to it just being rain.

[12]And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights. [13]On the very same day NOAH and NOAH's sons, SHEM, HAM, and JAPHETH, and NOAH's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark– [14]they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on teh earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. [15]And they went into the ark to NOAH, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life. [16]So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in. [17]Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth. [18]The waters prevailed and greatly increase on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters. [19]And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered. [20]The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. [21]And all flesh died tht moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. [22]All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died. [23]So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only NOAH and those who were with him in the ark remained alive. [24]And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Chapter 8: NOAH's Deliverance

[1]Then God remembered NOAH, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. [2]The fountains of the deep[a] and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

a - : The 'fountains of the deep' are clearly referred to here as something separate from the 'rain from heaven,' which supports the idea that water was coming from within earth as well and not just from the rain. This is also referenced in Genesis 7:11.

[3]And the waters receded continually from the earth[a]. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased.

a - : This is a literary technique that is used throughout these books (see Genesis 2:8, Genesis 2:15, and others). In Genesis 8:1, it clearly states the waters subsided (implying completion). However, it follows up by saying the waters were receding continually - which may seem out of order and thus contradictory. This literary format is seen repeatedly and clearly expands on the statement made prior to this rather than giving specific accounts in order.

[4]Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat. [5]And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

- : A question arises - does the earth have enough water to fit this flood account? A simple calculation based on a few key details suggests the answer is yes. First, the ocean water alone would not provide enough water to flood the earth in this manner. Thus, the "fountains of the deep" outlined in Genesis 8:2 and Genesis 7:11 are key to understanding how this is possible - which suggests water came from deep within earth, and not just from the oceans. To determine approximately how much water would be needed to flood the earth, the formula for the volume of a sphere can be used: $\frac{4}{3}\pi r^3$. Assuming earth is a perfect sphere and there are about as many hills and mountains as there are valleys and ravines (assuming terrain averages out to sea level, excluding oceans and filled basins), we can estimate the amount of water by finding the volume of that sphere from the highest mountain (Mount Everest at 6386.8 km from the center of the earth) to sea level (radius of earth which is about 6378.0 km from the center of the earth). This yields a total volume of water approximately three times that of Earth's oceans[1]. According to the Brookhaven National Laboratory, there is evidence for oceans of water deep in the earth. One fascinating statement on the subject (which should be more than enough to suggest this may be possible) is "If just one percent of the weight of mantle rock located in the transition zone is H_2O, that would be equivalent to nearly three times the amount of water in our oceans, the researchers said" [8].

- : I wrote a sermonette on this topic titled Fountains of The Deep, which covers it a bit more concisely [2].

[1]The results for these calculations were obtained from a Google featured snippet displaying the value directly in the search results after prompting Google with these questions. The calculations and conversions were done using Wolfram Alpha's computational engine [9]. This calculation is "$4 * pi * (6384.8^3 - 6378.0^3)/3$ km^3", which gave "$\approx 3\times$ volume of Earth's oceans (1.332×10^9 km^3)" as an automatically generated comparison value. When entering in this calculation as miles instead of kilometers, the results was 3.4 times the volume of earths oceans (slightly more precise).

[6]So it came to pass, at the end of the forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. [7]Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried from the earth. [8]He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground. [9]But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark himself. [10]And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark. [11]Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf[a] was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

a - ❓: This is interesting. Plants are obviously in a different category than the animals and people of the earth as they did not need saved by the ark. Perhaps this is part of what is meant by the breath of life in Genesis 7:15 and Genesis 7:22. However, how did an olive tree grow enough to bring forth olive leaves for the dove to pluck? It's possible it was just a freshly sprouted plant (small/tiny), and just a small sproutling (this can easily happen in a few days) and would likely be the case.

[12]So he waited yet another seven days and sent out a dove, which did not return again to him anymore. [13]And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month[a], that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry.

a - 🌱: This time is a reference to Noah's years on the earth. When the flood happened, he was 600 years old (see figure 1.5.1 and Genesis 7:6).

[14]And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried. [15]Then God spoke to Noah, saying, [16]"Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you. [17]Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth." [18]So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. [19]Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out from the ark.

God's Covenant with Creation ⬇

[20]Then Noah built an altar to the Lord, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

- 🌱: This is the first time a burnt offering is explicitly mentioned in scripture. It is possible that Abel's offering in Genesis 4:4, though it does not state explicitly that it is a burnt offering. The laws around offerings have not yet been elaborated on or explained.

[21]And the Lord smelled a smooth aroma. Then the Lord said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination[a] of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

a - 🔤: The word 'imagination' (Strong's 3336 [1]) means framing, or figuratively form. It can be thought of as intent or thoughts in this context.

[22]"While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, Cold and heat, Winter and summer, And day and night, Shall not cease."

Chapter 9: God's Promise to Noah

[1]So God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: "Be fruitful and multiply[a], and fill the earth.

a - 📖: This is the same thing God told Adam and Eve in Genesis 1:28. It is a commandment in a sense where God says to do this, which continually comes up in reference to those who follow God's ways.

[2]And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. [3]Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you[a]. I have given you all things, even as the green herbs.

a - : This scripture (as read) make it seem like anything/all living things on earth are good for food. He is speaking here to Noah and his sons. How does this reconcile with Deuteronomy 14 (the food laws)?

[4]But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

- : This makes it clear that you are NOT to eat the blood of animals.

[5]Surely for your lifeblood I will demand a reckoning; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man's brother I will require the life of man.

[6]Whoever sheds man's blood, By man his blood shall be shed; For in the image of God He made man. [7]And as for you, be fruitful and multiply; Bring forth abundantly in the earth And multiply in it."

[8]Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying: [9]"And as for Me, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants after you, [10]and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go our of the ark, every beast of the earth. [11]Thus I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth. [12]And God said: "This is the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: [13]I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. [14]It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud; [15]and I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. [16]The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." [17]And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Noah and His Sons

[18]Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan[a].

a - : The word/name for 'Canaan' here (Strong's 3667 [1]) means 'lowland'.

[19]These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated. [20]And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard. [21]Then he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent. [22]And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father[a], and told his two brothers outside.

a - : Some speculate that much more than Ham simply seeing his father naked occurred here - such as homosexual acts. However, it does not say more than 'saw the nakedness' and 'told his two brothers'. It could be that in the culture of the time, this was significantly more dishonorable or shameful than it is in our modern culture, which would explain the followup curse.

[23]But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness. [24]So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him. [25]Then he said:

"Cursed be Canaan; A servant of servants He shall be to his brethren."

[26]And he said:

"Blessed be the Lord, The God of Shem, And may Canaan be his servant. [27]May God enlarge Japheth, And may he dwell in the tents of Shem; And may Canaan be his servant."

[28]And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. [29]So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

- : At the time of Noah's death, 2006 years have passed since the creation of Adam (see figure 1.5.1).

Chapter 10: Nations Descended from Noah

[1]Now this is the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood. [2]The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. [3]The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. [4]The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and a - AF: The word for 'tongue' here (Strong's 3956 [1]) is often translated as language, but is distinct from the term for language used in Genesis 11:1 (thus translated to tongue here). this means tongue (literal or organ of speech), language, etc. It could refer to various dialects, or different languages entirely.

Dodanim. [5]From these the coastland peoples of the Gentiles were separated into their lands, everyone according to his tongue[a], according to their families, into their nations.

[6]The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. [7]The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. [8]Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth. [9]He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord. [10]And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of `Shinar`. [11]From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, [12]and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that is the principal city). [13]Mizraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, [14]Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim). [15]Canaan begot Sidon his firstborn, and Heth; [16]the Jebusite, the Amorite, and the Girgashite; [17]The Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite; [18]The Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were dispersed. [19]And the border of the Canaanites was from `Sidon` as you go toward Gerar, as far as `Gaza`; then as you go toward `Sodom`, `Gomorrah`, `Admah`, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha. [20]These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands and in their nations. [21]And children were born also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder[a].

a - AF: The word 'elder' here (Strong's 1419 [1]) could be referring to the older of age or of in importance (distinguished) such as a church elder.

[22]The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram. [23]The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. [24]Arphaxad begot Salah, and Salah begot Eber. [25]To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. [26]Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, [27]Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, [28]Obal, Abimael, Sheba, [29]Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. [30]And their dwelling place was from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east. [31]These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations. [32]These were the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations; and from thee the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11: The Tower of Babel

a - AF: The word for 'language' here (Strong's 8193 [1]) is distinct from the word 'tongues' used in Genesis 10. This word more literally means language or speech.

a - : In Genesis 10, it makes it seem like the different lineages were separated based on their tongues, which could mean languages. However, to be under one language here means either that tongues specifically refers to different dialects or that this languages is referring to something else such as the language of mathematics. We see in modern society that even though many countries have different languages, we all can write in common terms using something like mathematics. Though the 'one speech' makes it seem like a more literal form of spoken language.

[2]And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of `Shinar`, and they dwelt there. [3]Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. [4]And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whos top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

- : We see here that they (the people of the time) did not want to be scattered abroad over the face of the earth. Perhaps they knew something about sticking together that would give them an advantage? I wonder why they did not want to spread out. Perhaps they were advancing too quickly?

[5]But the Lord came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had build. [6]And the Lord said, "Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them. [7]Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." [8]So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city. [9]Therefore its name is called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

- ❓: For some reason, the LORD decided that he had to scatter them abroad the face of the earth - which is directly opposed to what the people wanted (see Genesis 11:4). Why did he find the need or desire to do this?

SHEM's Descendants ⬇

[10]This is the genealogy of SHEM: SHEM was one hundred years old, and begot ARPHAXAD two years after the flood. [11]After he begot ARPHAXAD, SHEM lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters. [12]ARPHAXAD lived thirty-five years, and begot SALAH. [13]After he begot SALAH, ARPHAXAD lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters. [14]SALAH lived thirty years, and begot EBER. [15]After he begot EBER, SALAH lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters. [16]EBER lived thirty-four years, and begot PELEG. [17]After he begot PELEG, EBER lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters. [18]PELEG lived thirty years, and begot REU. [19]After he begot REU, PELEG lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters. [20]REU lived thirty-two years, and begot SERUG. [21]After he begot SERUG, REU lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters. [22]SERUG lived thirty years, and begot NAHOR. [23]After he begot NAHOR, SERUG lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters. [24]NAHOR lived twenty-nine years, and begot TERAH. [25]After he begot TERAH, NAHOR lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters. [26]Now TERAH lived seventy years, and begot ABRAM, NAHOR, and HARAN.

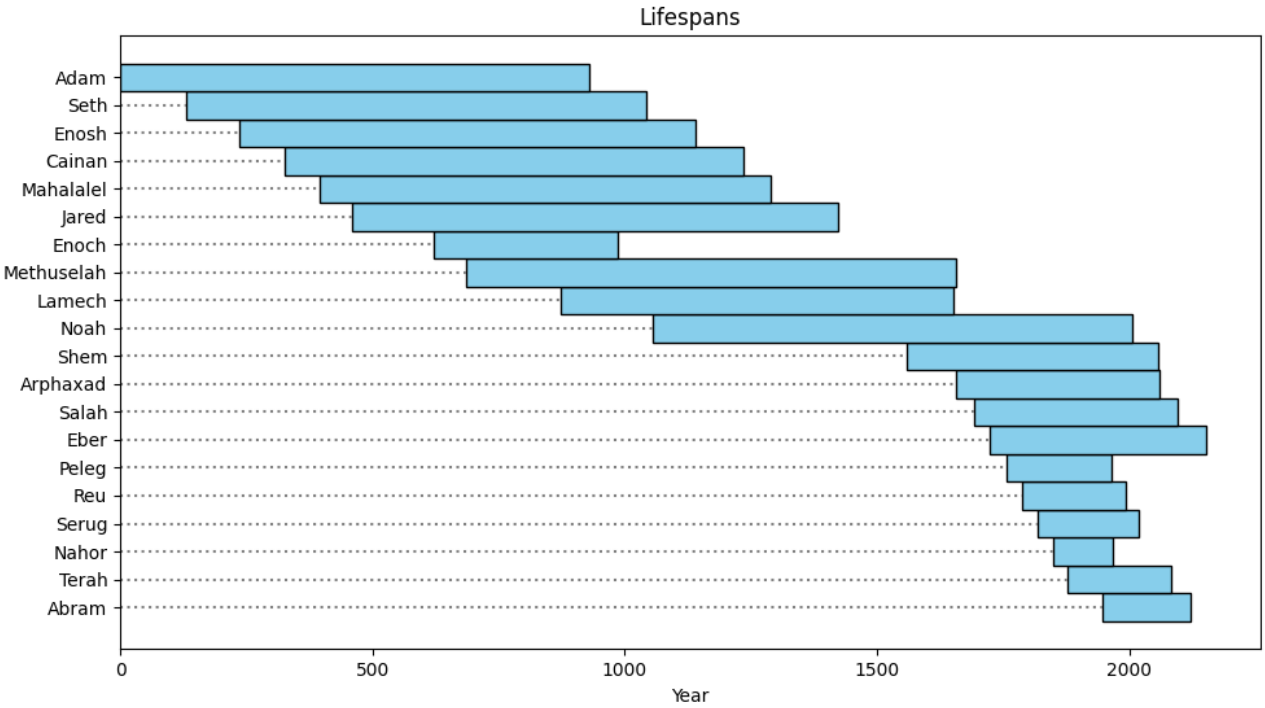

Figure 1.11.2: This chart shows the lifespans of various individuals whose total lifespans are mentioned. The chart covers individuals up to and including ABRAM.

TERAH's Descendants ⬇

[27]This is the genealogy of TERAH: TERAH begot ABRAM, NAHOR, and HARAN. HARAN begot LOT. [28]And HARAN died before his father TERAH in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans. [29]Then ABRAM and NAHOR took wives: the name of ABRAM's wife was SARAI, and the name of NAHOR's wife, MILCAH, the daughter of HARAN the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah. [30]But Sarai was barren; she had no child. [31]And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there. [32]So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

TODO: Make a family tree diagram of Terah's genealogy.

Chapter 12: Promises to Abram

[1]Now the Lord had said to Abram:

> "Get out of your country, From your family And from your father's house, To a land that I will show you. [2]I will make you a great nation; I will bless you And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing. [3]I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

[4]So Abram departed as the Lord had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. [5]Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan. [6]Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites were then in the land. [7]Then the Lord appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." And there he build an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him. [8]And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the Lord and called on the name of the Lord. [9]So Abram journeyed, going on still toward the South.

Abram in Egypt

[10]Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine was severe in the land. [11]And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Indeed I know that you are a woman of beautiful countenance. [12]Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife'; and they will kill me, but they will let you live. [13]Please say you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I may live because of you."

- : This was not a lie. She really was his sister - and also his wife. See Genesis 20:12.

[14]So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful. [15]The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the women was taken to Pharaoh's house. [16]He treated Abram well for her sake. He had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.

- : Why are male and female donkey's separated here in this list? What is the significance - perhaps something culturally significant?

[17]But the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. [18]And Pharaoh called Abram and said "What is this you have done to me? Why did you say 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take her and go your way." [19]So Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.

Chapter 13: Abram Inherits Canaan

[1]Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the South. [2]Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. [3]And he went on his journey from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, [4]to the place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there ABRAM called on the name of the LORD. [5]LOT also, who went with ABRAM, had flocks and herds and tents. [6]Now the land was not able to support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together. [7]And there was strife between the herdsmen of ABRAM's livestock and the herdsmen of LOT's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land. [8]So ABRAM said to LOT, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are brethren.

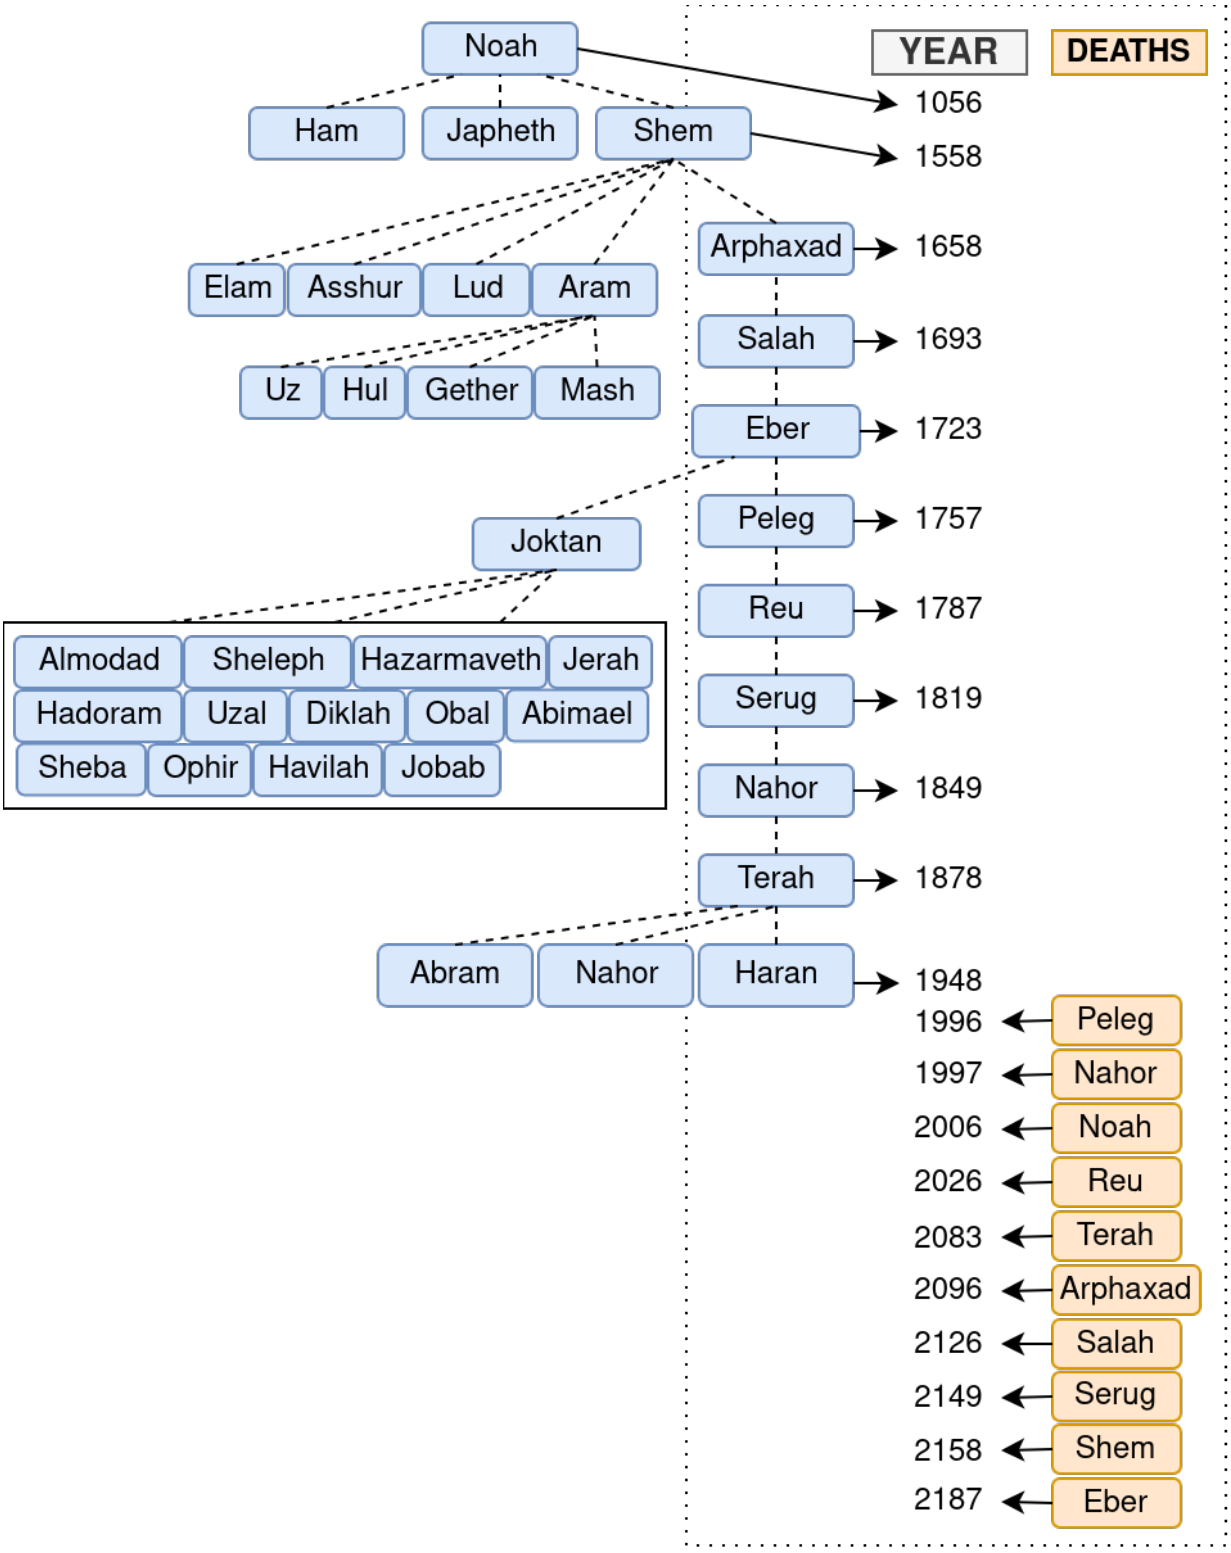

Figure 1.11.3: This is a diagram showing the genealogy of the family of Shem as outlined in Genesis 10 and Genesis 11. It ends with Terah's three children (Abram, Nahor, and Haran) from Genesis 11:26. Males are depicted in blue. The genealogy shows timeline markers showing the year of birth and death for many of the descendants (where outlined in Genesis 11), which are primarily in the dotted box. The box with a bold border represents all the sons of Joktan. This diagram was created by me using the draw.io tool [7].

- : ABRAM was born way before the death of any of his post-flood ancestors (see figure 1.11.2 and 1.11.3). Therefore, he likely heard stories of what strife causes and knew very well that it led to no good. Here is trying to make sure that strife does not cause division between him, LOT, and the others around them.

[9]Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you take the left, then I will go to the right; or, if you go to the right, then I will go to the left."

- : This is a perfect example of coming up with a compromise which is to avoid the strife between them, while showing that LOT can choose whichever direction he wants and ABRAM will be happier with the second choice rather than the strife between them.

TODO – Sermon/Sermonette: This example of making a compromise to avoid strife (Genesis 13:6 to Genesis 13:9) would make a good sermonette example.

[10]And LOT lifted his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere (before the LORD destroyed `Sodom` and `Gomorrah`) like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward Zoar. [11]Then LOT chose for himself all the plain of Jordan, and LOT journeyed east. And they separated from each other. [12]ABRAM dwelt in the land of Canaan, and LOT dwelt in the cities of the plan and pitched his tent even as far as `Sodom`. [13]But the men of `Sodom` were exceedingly wicked and sinful against the LORD. [14]And the LORD said to ABRAM, after LOT had separated from him: "Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are–northward, southward, eastward, and westward; [15]for all the land which you see I give to you and your descendants forever.

- : How does this relate to this area in the modern day? Could this only be referring to the physical descendants, and so the bloodline and direct descendants still dwell in these areas - rather than the spiritual descendants (i.e., the church which is a spiritual body)? See Galatians 3:29, and Romans 9:6 - Romans 9:8. It's clear from the new testament that not all of the spiritual descendants live in this land.

[16]And I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man cold number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered. [17]Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you." [18]Then ABRAM moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar to the LORD.

Chapter 14: LOT's Captivity and Rescue

[1]And it came to pass in the days of AMRAPHEL king of `Shinar`, ARIOCH king of `Ellasar`, CHEDORLAOMER king of `Elam`, and TIDAL king of nations, [2]that they made war with BERA king of `Sodom`, BIRSHA king of `Gomorrah`, SHINAB king of `Admah`, SHEMEBER king of `Zeboiim`, and the king of `Bela` (that is, ZOAR). [3]All these joined together in the `Valley of Siddim` (that is, the Salt Sea). [4]Twelve years they served CHEDORLAOMER, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. [5]In the fourteenth year, CHEDORLAOMER and the kings that were with him came and attacked the Rephaim in `Ashteroth Karnaim`, the Zuzim in `Ham`, the Emim in `Shaveh Kiriathaim`, [6]and the Horites in their mountain of `Seir`, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness. [7]Then they turned back and came to `En Mishpat` (that is, `Kadesh`), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in `Hazezon Tamar`.

TODO: Try to make sense of all these people, places, peoples, and what is going on - perhaps try drawing some diagrams?

[8]And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the kings of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim [9]against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of nations, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar–four kings against five. [10]Now the Valley of Siddim was full of asphalt pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; some fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains. [11]Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way. [12]They also took Lot, Abram;s brother's son who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed. [13]Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and they were allies with Abram. [14]Now when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. [15]He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. [16]So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people. [17]And the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley), after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him.

Abram and Melchizedek

[18]Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of God Most High[a].

a - AF: This is the first time the term 'Most High' has appeared. This term comes from the Hebrew term 'elyown' (Strong's 5945 [3]), which is an elevating title meaning the Supreme or the Uppermost. This is a differentiating statement which means this is referring to the literal highest being above all others.

a - 📖: This is a supporting concept to their being multiple members of the 'God' family, or multiple 'God' beings. This aligns with the plurality used in Genesis 1:26, John 1:1, John 17:5 and other places and perhaps points to the idea of a hierarchy in the God family.

[19]And he blessed him and said:

"Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth; [20]And blessed be God Most High,
Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

And he gave him a tithe of all. [21]Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, and take the goods for yourself." [22]But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to the Lord, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, [23]that I will take nothing, from a thread to a sandal strap, and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich'– [24]except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the man who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion."

Chapter 15: God's Covenant with Abram

[1]After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward." [2]But Abram said, "Lord God[a], what will You give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"

a - AF: This is a somewhat different representation of the translation. Instead of the usual 'Lord' used for God's proper name, the 'Lord' here is the Hebrew word 'Adonay' (Strong's 136 [3]) which literally means lord or master, whereas the 'God' is God's proper name, which usually appears as 'Lord'. So another way to write this could be 'lord Lord', but that is a little weird in English.

[3]But Abram said, "Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed one born in my house is my heir!" [4]And behold, the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "This one shall not be your heir, but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir." [5]Then He brought him outside and said, "Look, now toward heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them." And He said to him, "So shall your descendants be." [6]And he believed in the Lord, and He accounted it to him for righteousness. [7]Then He said to him, "I am the Lord, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it." [8]And he said, "Lord God, how shall I know that I will inherit it?" [9]So He said to him, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." [10]Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, down the middle, and placed each piece opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds in two.

- : Is there some sort of symbolism here with cutting the animals in half and then not cutting the birds?

[11]And when the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away. [12]Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, horror and great darkness fell upon him. [13]Then He said to Abram: "Know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them four hundred years.

- : This is referring to the slavery in `Egypt`, where his descendants will be slaves and eventually freed after 400 years.

[14]And also the nation whom they serve I will judge; afterward they shall come out with great possessions. [15]Now as for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried at a good old age. [16]But in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete." [17]And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that passed between those pieces. [18]On the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying: [19]"To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of `Egypt` to the great river, the `River of Euphrates`– [20]the Kenites, the Kenezzites, the Kadmonites, [21]the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Raphaim, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

Chapter 16: Hagar and Ishmael

[1]Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. And she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar. [2]So Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the Lord has restrained me from bearing children. Please, go in to my maid; perhaps I shall obtain children by her." And Abram heeded the voice of Sarai. [3]Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of `Canaan`. [4]So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became despised in her eyes.

- : This is a good example of Jealousy. It demonstrates one reason that polygamy is dangerous. Even though Sarai gave Abram permission and pleaded with him to conceive with Hagar, contentions grew between them because of the situation.

[5]Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong be upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. The Lord judge between you and me." [6]So Abram said to Sarai, "Indeed your maid is in your hand; do to her as you please." And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, she fled from her presence. [7]Now the Angel of the Lord found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to `Shur`. [8]And He said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai." [9]The Angel of the Lord said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand." [10]Then the Angel of the Lord said to her, "I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude." [11]And the Angel of the Lord said to her:

> "Behold, you are with child, And you shall bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, Because the Lord has heard your affliction. [12]He shall be a wild man; His hand shall be against every man, And every man's hand against him. And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren."

[13]Then she called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, "Have I also here seen Him who sees me?" [14]Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; observe, it is between `Kadesh` and `Bered`. [15]So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. [16]Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Chapter 17: The Sign of the Covenant

[1]When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am Almighty God; walk before Me and be blameless. [2]And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly." [3]Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying: [4]"As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. [5]No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. [6]I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. [7]And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you. [8]Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of `Canaan`, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God." [9]And God said to ABRAHAM: "As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. [10]This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male child among you shall be circumcised[a];

a - ❓: Was circumcision something that existed before this point? If so, who had discovered it and for what purpose would they have done this? This is perhaps something which is strange to have been discovered and practiced on its own without some purpose. It could make sense that this type of thing was taught to them by God, in which case it demonstrates a form of knowledge passed down from God which isn't something we would have figured out on our own.

[11]and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you. [12]He who is eight days old[a] among you shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought[b] with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant.

a - ❓: What is the significance of eight days old here? In modern society, this is often ignored - but there is likely a good reason for it. What has for-sure occurred by eight days of childhood development?

b - 🧭: Buying children (perhaps a form of adoption) seems to be a common (or at least common enough to mention) practice back in these days.

[13]He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money[a] must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

a - 🧭: This (in a way) introduces the concept of adoption and how the covenant extends to the adopted family as well. This shows that the covenant is not with only an absolute physical bloodline, but extends to others who are adopted into the family.

[14]And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

- 🧭: This is a physical sign of being part of God's covenant. It is clear that those without this physical differentiating mark (circumcision of the foreskin) is not part of the covenant.

[15]Then God said to ABRAHAM, "As for SARAI your wife, you shall not call her name SARAI, but SARAH shall be her name. [16]And I will bless her and also give you a son by herl then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall be from her." [17]then ABRAHAM fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, "Shall a child be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall SARAH, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"

- 🧭: Even though they lived much longer back then, this is around the time where the lifespans of the people were dropping significantly (see Figure 1.11.2). By this point, it is considered silly for parents of this age to be able to bear children.

[18]And ABRAHAM said to God, "Oh, that ISHMAEL might live before You!" [19]Then God said: "No, SARAH your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name ISAAC; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him. [20]And as for ISHMAEL, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. [21]But My covenant I will establish with ISAAC, whom SARAH shall bear to you at this set time next year." [22]Then He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham. [23]So ABRAHAM took ISHMAEL his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of ABRAHAM's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him. [24]ABRAHAM was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. [25]And ISHMAEL his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. [26]That very same day, ABRAHAM was circumcised, and his son ISHMAEL; [27]and all the men of his house, born in the house or brought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Chapter 18: The Son of Promise

[1]Then the LORD appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day. [2]So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bower himself to the ground, [3]and said, "My LORD, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant. [4]Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. [5]And I will bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, inasmuch as you have come to your servant." They said, "Do as you have said." [6]So ABRAHAM hurried into the tent to SARAH and said, "Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead it and make cakes." [7]And ABRAHAM ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it. [8]So he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate. [9]Then they said to him, "Where is SARAH your wife?" So he said, "Here, in the tent." [10]And He said, "I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, SARAH your wife shall have a son." (SARAH was listening in the tent door which was behind him.) [11]Now ABRAHAM and SARAH were old, well advanced in age, and SARAH had passed the age of childbearing. [12]Therefore SARAH laughed within herself[a], saying "After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"

a - : Does this mean she only thought it? If so, then her thoughts are being read in the following verses - which shows some of the capabilities of the LORD.

[13]And the LORD said to ABRAHAM, "Why did SARAH laugh, saying, 'Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?' [14]Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and SARAH shall have a son." [15]But SARAH denied it, saying, "I did not laugh," for she was afraid. And He said, "No, but you did laugh!"

ABRAHAM Intercedes for Sodom

[16]Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and ABRAHAM went with them to send them on the way. [17]And the LORD said, "Shall I hide from ABRAHAM what I am doing, [18]since ABRAHAM shall surely become a great and imghty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? [19]For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice, that the LORD may bring to ABRAHAM what He has spoken to him." [20]And the LORD said, "Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave, [21]I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, I will know." [22]Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but ABRAHAM still stood before the LORD. [23]And ABRAHAM came near and said, "Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? [24]Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare it for fifty righteous that were in it? [25]Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?" [26]So the LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes." [27]Then ABRAHAM answered and said, "Indeed now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the LORD: [28]Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would you destroy all of the city for lack of five?" He said, "If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it." [29]And he spoke to Him yet again and said, "Suppose there should be forty found there?" So He said, "I will not do it for the sake of forty." [30]Then he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty shall be found there?" So He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there." [31]And he said, "Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?" So He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty." [32]Then he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?" And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten." [33]So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with ABRAHAM; and ABRAHAM returned to his place.

Chapter 19: Sodom's Depravity

[1]Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and LOT was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When LOT saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. [2]And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way." And they said, "No, but we will spend the night in the open square." [3]But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate[a].

a - : Here the angels eat food. Which humanizes them and demonstrates that they can do things that normal humans do like interacting with the physical and eating.

4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house. 5 And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men[a] who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them carnally."

a - : The townsfolk recognize these as men, despite them being angels. This further demonstrates that angels can appear as human.

- : Are there humans around us which are actually angels interacting with us? This is certainly suggested in Hebrews 13:2.

6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him, 7 and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly! 8 See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof."

- : Offering his two daughters to the mob is such an extreme act. This could demonstrate that Lot recognizes that the men are angels sent from God and perhaps he thinks that if the acts of the mob are carried out, that God's wrath will be sent down on them. Otherwise, why would he offer such an extreme counter offer in response?

9 And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one came in to stay here, and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them."So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door. 10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.
11 And they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city–take them out of this place! 13 For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to destroy it." 14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city!" But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking. 15 When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city." 16 And while he lingered the men took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the Lord being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city. 17 So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that he said, "Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be destroyed." 18 Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! 19 Indeed now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die. 20 See now, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one; please let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live." 21 And he said to him, "See, I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. 22 Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. 23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar. 24 Then the Lord rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gommorah, from the Lord out of heavens. 25 So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. 26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. 27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the Lord. 28 Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace. 29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

The Descendants of Lot

[30]Then Lot went up out of Zoar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave. [31]Now the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth. [32]Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father." [33]So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose. [34]It happened to the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, "Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father." [35]Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose. [36]Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. [37]The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day. [38]And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

Chapter 20: Abraham and Abimelech

[1]And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar. [2]Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

- : Did he not learn from the past? This is the same thing that happened in Genesis 12:11.

[3]But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, "Indeed you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife."

TODO – Sermon/Sermonette: This example and that in Genesis 12:11 could make a good sermonette topic. Ignorance of the law is not an excuse to break the law. In this case, not knowing that Sarah was married is still no valid excuse for acting as though she is single.

[4]But Abimelech had not come near herl and he said, "Lord, will You slay a righteous nation also? [5]Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this." [6]And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her. [7]Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours." [8]So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the man were very much afraid. [9]And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done." [10]Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?" [11]And Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife. [12]But indeed she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. [13]And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, say of me, "He is my brother." ' " [14]Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he restored Sarah his wife to him. [15]And Abimelech said, "See, my land is before you; dwell where it pleases you." [16]Then to Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; indeed this vindicates you before all who are with you and before everybody." Thus, she was rebuked. [17]So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants.Then they bore children; [18]for the Lord had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarag, Abraham's wife.

Chapter 21: Isaac Is Born

[1]And the Lord visited Sarah as He had said, and the Lord did for Sarah as He had spoken. [2]For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time which God had spoken to him. [3]And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him–whom Sarah bore to him–Isaac. [4]Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old[a], as God had commanded him.

a - : Circumcision was to be done on the eighth day.

[5]Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. [6]And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me." [7]She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

[8]So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned. [9]And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, scoffing. [10]Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this bondwomen and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, namely with Isaac." [11]And the matter was very displeasing in Abraham's sight because of his son. [12]But God said to Abraham, "Do not let it be displeasing in your sight because of the lad or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Isaac your seed shall be called. [13]Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your seed." [14]So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water; and putting it on her shoulder, he gave it and the boy to Hagar, and sent her away. Then she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba. [15]And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs. [16]Then she went and say down across from him at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, "Let me not see the death of the boy." So she sat opposite him, and lifted her voice and wept. [17]And God heard the voice of the lad. Then the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Fear not, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is. [18]Arise, lift up the lad and hold him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation." [19]Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink. [20]So God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. [21]He dwelt in the Wilderness of `Paran`; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of `Egypt`.

A Covenant with Abimelech

[22]And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. [23]Now therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt." [24]And Abraham said, "I will swear." [25]Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants had seized. [26]And Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard of it until today." [27]So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant. [28]And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. [29]Then Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves?" [30]And he said, "You will take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that they may be my witness that I have dug this well." [31]Therefore he called that place `Beersheba`, because the two of them swore an oath there. [32]Thus they made a covenant at `Beersheba`. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines. [33]Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in `Beersheba`, and there called on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God. [34]And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22: Abraham's Faith Confirmed

[1]Now it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." [2]Then He said, "Take now your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of `Moriah`, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you."

- : If God can tell your heart (Psalm 44:21, Matthew 9:4), why did he need Abraham to do this physical act to confirm his faith? Perhaps this is here to show how important works are, as it states in James 2:26.

[3]So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him. [4]Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off. [5]And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you." [6]So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together. [7]But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." Then he said, "Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" [8]And Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering." So the two of them went together. [9]Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood. [10]And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. [11]But the Angel of the Lord called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" So he said, "Here I am." [12]And He said, "Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me." [13]Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son. [14]And Abraham called the name of the place, The-Lord-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day, "In the Mount of the Lord it shall be provided." [15]Then the Angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, [16]and said: "By Myself I have sworn, says the Lord, because you have done this thing[a], and have not withheld your son, your only son– a - 📖: This is a strong example to show that works are very important in demonstrating our faith (as it says in James 2:14). Some believe that God should just know the heart of each and every one of us (which is true) and such that we do not need to perform works or actions to show what our heart is. However, the concept of free will makes actions necessary. God is omnipresent and exists outside of time (Genesis 1:1). Therefore, the actions throughout our lives are likely how he knows our heart, and therefore necessary. Despite this, we have free will, so in any moment, we can choose to go with or against our faith. In this moment, Abraham is supporting his faith with works. The works in this case are so extreme, that they demonstrate clearly the level of faith that he has.

[17]blessings I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. [18]In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice." [19]So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to `Beersheba`; and Abraham dwelt at `Beersheba`.

The Family of Nahor

[20]Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, "Indeed Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor: [21]Huz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, [22]Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel." [23]And Bethuel begot Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. [24]His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

Chapter 23: Sarah's Death and Burial

[1]Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah. [2]So Sarah died in `Kirjath Arba` (that is, `Hebron`) in the land of `Canaan`, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her. [3]Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying [4]"I am a foreigner and a visitor among you. Give me property or a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight." [5]And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, [6]"Hear us, my lord: You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead." [7]Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth. [8]And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, [9]that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you." [10]Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who entered at the gate of his city, saying, [11]"No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!" [12]Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land; [13]and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury me dead there." [14]And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, [15]"My lord, listen to me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead." [16]And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants. [17]So the field of Ephron which was in `Machpelah`, which was before `Mamre`, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded [18]to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. [19]And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of `Machpelah`, before `Mamre` (that is, `Hebron`) in the land of `Canaan`. [20]So the field and the cave that is in it were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

Chapter 24: A Bride for Isaac

[1]Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things. [2]So Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please, put your hand under my thigh, [3]and I will make you swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; [4]but you shall go to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac. [5]And the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land, Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?" [6]But Abraham said to him, "Beware that you do not take my son back there. [7]The Lord God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, 'To your descendants I give this land,' He will sent His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. [8]And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there." [9]So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter. [10]Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, for all his master's goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to `Mesopotamia`, to the city of `Nahor`. [11]And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water. [12]Then he said, "O Lord God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. [13]Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. [14]Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink'–let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master." [15]And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. [16]Now the young woman was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up. [17]And the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher." [18]So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink. [19]And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking." [20]Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. [21]And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous or not. [22]Do it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighting half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold, [23]and said, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father's house for us to lodge?" [24]So she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah's son, whom she bore to Nahor." [25]Moreover she said to him, "We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge." [26]Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped the Lord. [27]And he said, "Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham. who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the Lord led me to the house of my master's brethren." [28]So the young woman ran and told her mother's household these things. [29]Now Rebekah had a brother whos name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man by the well. [30]So it came to pass, when he saw the nose ting, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, "Thus the man spoke to me," that he went to the man. And there he stood by the camels at the well. [31]And he said, "Come in, O blessed of the Lord! Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels." [32]Then the man came to the house. And he unloaded the camels, and provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

- : In that culture, the people were on their feet a lot more. They probably did not have boots and socks which are as covering as modern day footwear. Their feet would become dirty - especially compared to the rest of them. They would clean their feet after long journeys so that they could comfortably stay in one place. Imagine having dirty feet and trying to relax in a bed or even in a dwelling. This was a common thing to wash your feet, which is not something we think about today in many cultures where immediate access to regular showers and modern footwear is common. It has been this way for most of human history. This brings a whole new meaning to John 13:5, when Jesus washed his disciples feet - which isn't something that is as needed in modern times.

[33]Food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told about my errand." And he said, "Speak on." [34]So he said, "I am Abraham's servant. [35]The Lord has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys. [36]And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has. [37]Now my master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell; [38]but you shall go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.' [39]And I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me.' [40]But he said to me, 'The Lord, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and my father's house. [41]You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.' [42]"And this day I came to the well and said, 'O Lord God of my master Abraham. of You will now prosper the way in which I go, [43]behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, "Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink," [44]and she says to me, "Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,"–let her be the woman whom the Lord has appointed for my master's son.' [45]But before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, 'Please let me drink.' [46]And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink and I will give your camels a drink also.' So I drank, and she gave the camels drink also. [47]Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. [48]And I bowed my head and worshiped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. [49]Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left." [50]Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "The thing comes from the Lord; we cannot speak to you either bad or good. [51]Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the Lord has spoken." [52]And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he worshiped the Lord, bowing himself to the earth. [53]Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. [54]And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and stayed all night, Then they arose in the morning, and he said, "Send me away to my master." [55]But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten; after that she may go." [56]And he said to them, "Do not hinder me, since the Lord has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master." [57]So they said, "We will call the young woman and ask her personally." [58]Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, "I will go."

- : A lot of people in the modern era speak of this time and place as if they owned their woman. Although this is true for many locations, this example shows that they are giving Rebekah a choice in the matter. They let her decide whether or not she will go with the men and allow her to make the decision. The way it's ordered and worded in English, it could be that she only decided whether or not to go now or later - but it also could be interpreted as her choosing to leave in general.

[59]So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men. [60]And they blessed Rebekah and said to her:

"Our sister, may you become The mother of thousands of ten thousands; And may your descendants possess
The gates of those who hate them."

[61]Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed. [62]Now Isaac came from the way of `Beer Lohai Roi`, for he dwelt in the `South`. [63]And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels were coming. [64]Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel; [65]for she had said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." So she took a veil and covered herself.

- ❓: Why did she decide to cover herself in this moment? Was it because Isaac was to be her husband? Why not cover herself before for the servants to not see herself?

[66]And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. [67]Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Chapter 25: Abraham and Keturah

a - 🧭: Taking multiple wives seemed to be a fairly common practice in these times.

[2]And she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. [3]Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. [4]And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

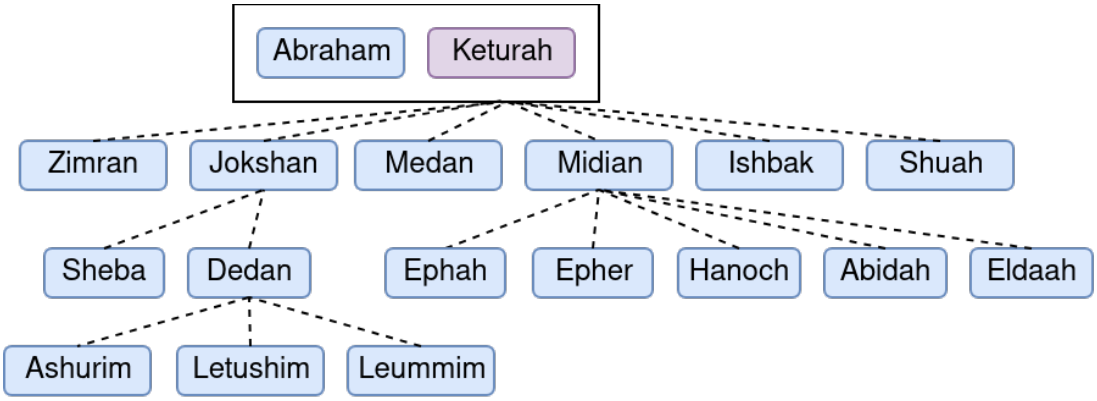

Figure 1.25.4: This is a diagram showing the genealogy of the family of Abraham and Keturah as outlined in Genesis 25. Marriage is depicted with a rectangular border around the couple. This diagram was created by me using the draw.io tool [7].

[5]And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac. [6]But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had; and while he was still living he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to the country of the east.

Abraham's Death and Burial ⬇

[7]This is the sum of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years. [8]Then Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, and old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people. [9]And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of `Machpelah`, which is before `Mamre`, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, [10]the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife. [11]And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at `Beer Lahai Roi`.

The Families of Ishmael and Isaac ⬇

[12]Now this is the genealogy of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham. [13]And these were the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; then Kedar, Abdeel, Mibsam, [14]Mishma, Dumah, Massa, [15]Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

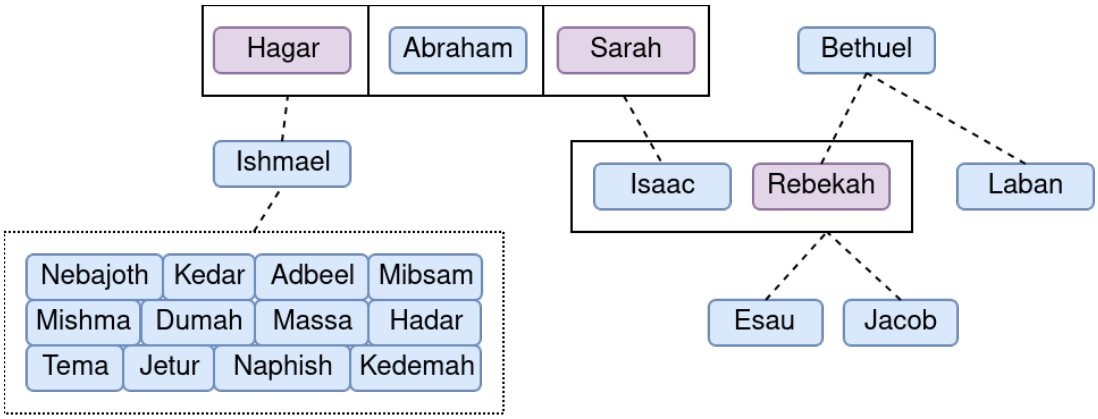

Figure 1.25.5: This is a diagram showing the genealogy of the family of Ishmael and Isaac as outlined in Genesis 25. Marriage is depicted with a rectangular border around the couple. Males are depicted in blue, while females are pink. Births are depicted as branching off from the mother. Rebekah and Laban are siblings (Genesis 25:20 and Genesis 24:29), which likely implies Laban is Bethuel's son (since descendants are typically tracked through the males). This diagram was created by me using the draw.io tool [7].

[16]These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve princes according to their nations. [17]These were the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people. [18](They dwelt from `Havilah` as far as `Shur`, which is east of `Egypt` as you go toward `Assyria`.) He died in the presence of all his brethren. [19]This is the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham begot Isaac. [20]Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of `Padan Aram`, the sister of Laban the Syrian. [21]Now Isaac pleaded with the Lord for his wife, because she was barren; and the Lord granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived. [22]But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" So she went to inquire of the Lord. [23]And the Lord said to her:

> "Two nations are in your womb, Two peoples shall be separated from your body; One people shall be stronger than the other, And the older shall serve the younger."

[24]So when her days were fulfilled for her to give birth, indeed there were twins in her womb. [25]And the first came out red. He was like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name Esau [a].

a - 🔤: As stated here in context, the word 'Esau' means 'hairy' [1].

[26]Afterwards his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob [a]. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

a - 🔤: As stated here in context, the word 'Jacob' means 'heel holder' [1].

[27]So the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man[a], dwelling in tents.

a - 🔤: The term 'mild man' (Strong's H8535 - also often translated to 'plain') implies he was a simple man - quiet, innocent, and one who does not get into trouble often. Strong's translates this word in other areas as 'complete, morally innocent, having integrity' or 'one who is morally and ethically pure' [1].

[28]And Isaac loved Esau because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

[29]Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was faint. [30]And Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am faint." Therefore his name was called Edom[a].

a - 🔤: The name 'Edom' (Strong's H123 [1]) means 'red.' This could be because he was exhausted and red from a long time working out in the sun. Based on Genesis 25:32, this was likely an incredibly exhausted state.

[31]But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day." [32]And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; so what is this birthright as of this day." [33]Then Jacob said, "Swear to me as of this day." So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. [34]And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he are and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright[a].

a - 🔤: The term 'birthright' (Strong's H1062 [1]) means the privilege that is given at birth. This can include an inheritance, or even leadership of a clan/family.

Chapter 26: Isaac and Abimelech

[1]There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in `Gerar`. [2]Then the Lord appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to `Egypt`; live in the land of which I shall tell you. [3]Dwell in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. [4]And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed; [5]because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."

⛪ TODO – Sermon/Sermonette: This (Genesis 26:5) shows what we humans need to do in order to have favor with God. He clearly says that he will bless his descendants and gives the why very clearly. Through our actions, we show our character, and these actions are necessary. If Abraham had not done these actions, this reason God stated would not have been fulfilled. This could serve as a good example for a sermonette.

[6]So Isaac dwelt in `Gerar`. [7]And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said "She is my sister"[a]; for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," because he though, "lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold."

a - 🟦: This mirrors the exact thing that Abraham did with Sarah in Genesis 20:2.

⛪ TODO – Sermon/Sermonette: This (Genesis 26:7) kicks off a very similar account of what happened to Abraham with Sarah. What is the significance? It could be a perfect example of why you should share your mistakes with your children, so that they do not make the same mistakes.

[8]Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, showing endearment to Rebekah his wife. [9]Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.'" [10]And Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us." [11]So Abimelech charged all his people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

- 🧭: Abimelech has already been through this once (Genesis 20). He knows personally that God does not look kindly on messing with another man's wife. Therefore, he puts this warning for all the people who may not be aware of the dangers.

⛪ TODO – Sermon/Sermonette: This adds context to two of the ten commandments (Exodus 20:15 and Exodus 20:17) by demonstrating just how serious of an offense this is. God does not look kindly on men who would touch another man's wife - even unknowingly. This can be expanded upon quite a bit.

[12]Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and the Lord blessed him. [13]The man began to prosper, and continued prospering until he became very prosperous; [14]for he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great number of servants. So the Philistines envied him. [15]Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth. [16]And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we." [17]Then Isaac departed from there and pitched a tent in the `Valley of Gerar`, and dwelt there. [18]And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them. [19]Also Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found a well of running water there. [20]But the herdsmen of `Gerar` quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the name of the well Esek, because they quarreled with him. [21]Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name `Sitnah`. [22]And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name `Rehoboth`, because he said, "For now the Lord has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land." [23]Then he went up from there to `Beersheba`. [24]And the Lord appeared to him the same night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham's sake." [25]So he built an altar there and called on the name of the Lord, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well. [26]Then Abimelech came to him from `Gerar` with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol the commander of his army. [27]And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?" [28]But they said, "We have certainly seen that the Lord is with you. So we said, 'Let there be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a covenant with you, [29]that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the Lord.'" [30]So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. [31]Then they arose early in the morning and swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. [32]It came to pass the same day that Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water." [33]So he called it `Shebah`. Therefore the name of the city is `Beersheba` to this day. [34]When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. [35]And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Chapter 27: Isaac Blesses Jacob

[1]Now it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, "My son." And he answered him "Here I am." [2]Then he said, "Behold now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death. [3]Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me.

- : This could be used to suggest that hunting is okay, which is a common thing some people argue against in our modern culture.

[4]And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die." [5]Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it. [6]So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying [7]'Bring me game and make savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the Lord before my death.' [8]Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you. [9]Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make savory food from them for your father, such as he loves. [10]Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he may bless you before his death."

- : Earlier, in Genesis 25:28, it is said that Rebekah loves Jacob. However, it is phrased in a way which suggests she does not love Esau. This could be why she is trying to undermine Isaac's wishes here. Alongside this, it fits with Genesis 25:34, where Esau sold his birthright to Jacob, which could be fulfilled in this scenario.

[11]And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth-skinned man. [12]Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him; and I shall bring a curse on myself and not a blessing." [13]But his mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me." [14]And he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory food, such as his father loved. [15]Then Rebekah took the choice clothes of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. [16]And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. [17]Then she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob. [18]So he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am. Who are you. my son?" [19]Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me." [20]But Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" And he said, "Because the Lord your God brought it to me." [21]Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come hear, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

- : Esau was a very harry man, so Isaac would be able to feel all of the hair on him to determine whether he was truly him.

[22]So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." [23]And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him. [24]Then he said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He said, "I am." [25]He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's game, so that my soul may bless you." So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank. [26]Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come near now and kiss me, my son." [27]And he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said:

> "Surely, the smell of my son Is like the smell of a field Which the Lord has blessed. [28]Therefore may God give you Of the dew of heaven, Of the fatness of the earth, And plenty of grain and wine. [29]Let peoples serve you, And nations bow down to you. Be master over your brethren, And let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, And blessed be those who bless you!"

Esau's Lost Hope

[30]Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. [31]He also had made savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, "Let my father arise and eat of his son's game, that your soul may bless me." [32]And his father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" So he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau." [33]Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, "Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him–and indeed he shall be blessed." [34]When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me–me also, O my father!" [35]But he said, "Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing." [36]And Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!" And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" [37]Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren have given to him as servants; with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?" [38]And Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me–me also, O my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. [39]Then Isaac his father answered and said to him:

> "Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, And of the dew of heaven from above. [40]By your sword you shall live, And you shall serve your brother; And it shall come to pass, when you become restless, That you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Jacob Escapes from Esau

[41]So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob." [42]And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Surely your brother Esau comforts hilself concerning you by intending to kill you. [43]Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: arise, flee to my brother Laban in `Haran`. [44]And stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away, [45]until your brother's anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?" [46]And Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

Chapter 28: Jacob Sent to His Uncle Laban

[1]Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him: "You shall not take a wife from the daughters of `Canaan`. [2]Arise, go to `Padan Aram`, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and take yourself a wife from there of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

[3]"May God Almighty bless you, And make you fruitful and multiply you, That you may be an assembly of peoples; [4]And give you the blessing of Abraham, To you and your descendants with you, That you may inherit the land In which you are a stranger, Which God gave to Abraham."

[5]So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to `Padan Aram`, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries Mahalath

[6]Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to `Padan Aram` to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, "You shall not take a wife from the daughters of `Canaan`," [7]and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to `Padan Aram`. [8]Also Esau saw that the daughters of `Canaan` did not please his father Isaac. [9]So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob's Vow at `Bethel`

[10]Now Jacob went out from `Beersheba` and went toward `Haran`. [11]So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep. [12]Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder[a] was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

a - 🔤: This word (Strong's H5551) is a literal ladder. Could it be metaphorical here for something a bit more fancy - such as the angels here ascending and descending by something more sophisticated that they did not have a word for?

[13]And behold, the Lord stood above it and said: "I am the Lord God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land[a] on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.

a - 🗺: This is described as a certain place between `Beersheba` and `Haran`. Jacob names it `Bethel` in Genesis 25:19.

[14]Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed. [15]Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you." [16]Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it." [17]And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!" [18]Then Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it. [19]And he called the name of that place `Bethel`; but the name of that city had been `Luz` previously. [20]Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, [21]so that I come back to my father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God. [22]And this stone which I have set as a pillar shall be God's house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You."

Chapter 29: Jacob Meets Rachel

[1]So Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the `East`. [2]And he looked, and was a well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth. [3]Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth. [4]And Jacob said to them, "My brethren, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from `Haran`." [5]Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him." [6]So he said to them, "Is he well?" And they said, "He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep." [7]Then he said, "Look, it is still high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them." [8]But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep." [9]Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. [10]And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. [11]Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept. [12]And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father. [13]Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things. [14]And Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

[15]Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?" [16]Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. [17]Leah's eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance. [18]Now Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter." [19]And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me." [20]So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him because of the love he had for her. [21]Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her." [22]And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast. [23]Now it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

- : The feast here could have likely meant that there was alcohol involved. Otherwise, how could Jacob have not realized it was Leah immediately? Perhaps it was just too dark and Jacob could not see her visibly until the morning (Genesis 29:25).

[24]And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid. [25]So it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it was Leah. And he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?" [26]And Laban said, "It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. [27]Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years."

- : Two things could potentially be at play here. First, it's been seven years and Leah still hasn't married - perhaps Laban saw this as an opportunity to remedy that. Second, the service that Jacob provided could have been extremely beneficial and valuable, in which case Laban would have wanted to keep him around and not lose that service.

[28]Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week[a]. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also.

a - : This 'fulfilled her week' phrase (also used in Genesis 29:27) seems to be a dedicated time that was given to Leah, after which Jacob was given Rachel also. The last phrase of Genesis 29:30 make it seem like this all happened before the second seven years were served. Making Jacob wait another seven years after the initial promise would have been a lot more awkward of a situation, and also Rachel's age would have progressed another seven years, which may not have been as desired logistically (for children and such).

[29]And Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maid. [30]Then Jacob also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

The Children of Jacob

[31]When the Lord saw that Leah was hated[a], He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

a - : The NKJV Bible translates this to unloved, however, the word (Strongs H8130 [1]) seems to be better understood as hated; almost as if an enemy.

- : This would have obviously been extremely difficult for Leah. As suggested by the following verses, at this point it was entirely because of her Husbands lack of love for her. She is clearly seeking this love in Genesis 29:32.

[32]So Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben; for she said, "The Lord has surely looked on my affliction. Now therefore, my husband will love me." [33]Then she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Because the Lord has heard that I am hated, He has therefore given me this son also." And she called his name Simeon. [34] [35]

Summary:

Chapter 1: What Was Heard, Seen, and Touched

[1]That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life– [2]the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us– [3]that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. [4]And these things we write to you that your joy may be full.

Fellowship With Him and One Another

[5]This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. [6]If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk[a] in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

a - 📖: It is very clear that walking (or taking actions, living in, etc) in darkness (sin or actions against God whom is light as explained in 1 John 1:5) is something we cannot have any part of - otherwise we do not have fellowship with Christ.

[7]But if we walk[a] in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

a - 📖: Actions (implying a literal doing and not just believing) are clearly required to be part of having fellowship with Jesus. This action (walking) is a requirement for Jesus Christ to cleanse us from sin - it requires action on our part.

[8]If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. [9]If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. [10]If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

- 📖: A huge part of having our sins cleansed (as explained in 1 John 5:7) is recognizing that we have and live in sin. We have to recognize and confess these, or we are deceiving ourselves. If we do not recognize this, we therefore do not have an understanding of reality.

Chapter 2: The Test of Knowing Christ

[1]My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin[a]. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous[b].

a - 📖: One of the main purposes of this letter (as stated here) is so that we understand that we should not sin. If sinning was okay, this would not really serve a purpose. It further clarifies that the law has to be physically followed and our actions matter. If they did not, there would be no reason to not sin.

b - 📖: Jesus is our advocate with the Father. When we inevitably sin, because we all do, He is the one who we have to go to in order to reconcile what we've done. This is pivotal, as explained in 1 John 5:7.

[2]And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

[3]Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.

- 📖: This again reiterates the actions of doing the commandments in order to know Him. If we do not do this, we have no ability to understand who Jesus Christ really was.

[4]He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

- 📖: It is therefore impossible to know Jesus Christ without keeping his commandments.

[5]But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. [6]He who says he abides in Him ought himself also walk just as He walked.

- 🌱: Jesus kept all of the commandments. This is how he walked. This is directly referring to His actions and how He lived His life.

[7]Brethren, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning[a]. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.

a - 🌱: These things that are being said are not new. These are the same commandments that have always existed and no different. Anything that seems different is simply a misrepresentation of the original commandments which have always existed (from the beginning).

[8]Again, a new commandment I write to you[a], which thing is true in Him and you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

a - 🌱: This is a little confusing. At first he says he is not giving any new commandment, but an old commandment which they have had from the beginning. Now he says that he is giving a new commandment. The commandment here is not new in the sense that it has always existed. The new part comes from the new realization, depth, and meaning that this commandment is presented in through Jesus Christ's teaching. In a sense, it's saying that we've had this commandment all along, but we didn't really understand if fully - so it seems new even though we've had it all along.

[9]He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now. [10]He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him. [11]But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

[12]I write to you, little children, Because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake. [13]I write to you, fathers, Because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, Because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, Because you have known the Father. [14]I have written to you, fathers, Because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, Because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, And you have overcome the wicked one.

Do Not Love the World

[15]Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. [16]For all that is in the world–the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life–is not of the Father but is of the world. [17]And the world is passing away, and the list of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Deceptions of the Last Hour

[18]Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many Antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. [19]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us. [20]But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. [21]I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it[a], and that no lie is of the truth.

a - 🌱: The audience of this letter knows the truth, they are not ignorant of it.

[22]Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. [23]Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

[24]Therefore let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. [25]And this is the promise that He has promised us–eternal life. [26]These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you. [27]But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him.

The Children of God

[28]And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. [29]If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.

Chapter 3: The Command to Love

[1]Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God! Therefore the world does not know us; because it did not know Him. [2]Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. [3]And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

[4]Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. [5]And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. [6]Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him. [7]Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. [8]He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. [9]Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

The Imperative of Love

[10]In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother. [11]For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, [12]not as Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous. [13]Do not marvel, my brethren, if the world hates you. [14]We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother abides in death. [15]Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

[16]By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. [17]But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him? [18]My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

- 📖: These passages show the importance of our actions. It is not enough to just speak nice words, but we must act on them.

[19]And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. [20]For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. [21]Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God. [22]And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. [23]And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as He gave us commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

[24]Now he who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by he spirit whom He has given us.

Chapter 4: Love for God and One Another

[1]Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

- : Notice here that spirits are used when explaining that false prophets have gone into the world. Do spirits here represent any spirit (man, animal, etc) or could this be referring to only spirit beings. This could imply that many of the false prophets are demonic spirits which is supported in 1 John 4:3.

[2]By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that JESUS CHRIST has come in the flesh is of God, [3]and Every spirit that does not confess that JESUS CHRIST has come in the flesh is not of God[a]. And this is the SPIRIT of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world[b].

a - : There are many groups of people who deny this, such as many modern day Jews. But if anyone claims this, they are not of God. This is a good litmus test.

b - : This was written a long time ago, and therefore this spirit must not be a physical being, but rather a spiritual entity. Therefore, the Antichrist is a demonic being - perhaps SATAN himself.

[4]You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world[a].

a - : This could be interpreted as he who is in JESUS is greater than he who is Antichrist (Literally meaning, anti-christ since the Antichrist is in the world per the previous few scriptures). The distinction of 'in' the world and 'of' the world is the physical vs spiritual distinction here. He who is of the world would be he who is of the spirit of the Antichrist.

[5]They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. [6]We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us[a]. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error[b].

a - : There is such a distinction between Christ and Antichrist, that people who are not of Christ cannot even understand or comprehend those of Christ. This shows that there will be confusion between the two groups.

b - : The spirit of truth is Christ and the spirit of Error is anti-christ. To be anti-christ means to not be in the truth and to instead be in error.

Knowing God Through Love

[7]Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

- : This is why there is such a large attack and distortion of love in the modern day society. If you cannot know what love is then you cannot distinguish between a godly spirit and the spirit of the Antichrist.

[8]He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. [9]In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. [10]In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His son to be the propitiation[a] for our sins.

a - : The English definition of propitiation is 'the act of gaining or regaining the favor or goodwill of someone or something.'

[11]Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

[12]No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. [13]By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. [14]And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. [15]Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

- : To confess is much more than to simply accept it. If you truly confess, you accept it and understand the meaning of it, which includes following the commandments and teachings of Jesus.

[16]And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

The Consummation of Love

[17]Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. [18]There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. [19]We love Him because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

[20]If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? [21]And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

Chapter 5: Obedience by Faith

[1]Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him. [2]By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments. [3]For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. [4]For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world–our faith. [5]Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

- : This is a prerequisite but obviously (as outlined in the previous scriptures) not the only requirement.

The Certainty of God's Witness

[6]This is He who came by water and blood–Jesus Christ; not only bt water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. [7]~~For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one.~~ [8]~~And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.~~

- : Many translations omit these verses (1 John 5:7-8) because it is believed to have been added (see below notes).
- : These verses do not appear in manuscripts until about the fourteenth or fifteenth centuries[10].

[9]If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God which He has testified of His Son. [10]He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son. [11]And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. [12]He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. [13]These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

[14]Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will a

, He hears us.

a - : This is an important addition to the commonly known 'ask and you shall receive' belief. The ask must be according to His will in order to be fulfilled, which means if you ask things not according to His will, there is no guarantee He hears us.

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.
16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death. I do not say that he should pray about that.
17 All unrighteousness is sin and there is sin not leading to death.

- : How do these two versus relate to Romans 6:23, where it says the wages of sin is death and 1 John 3:4.

Knowing the True-Rejecting the False

18 We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of God keeps himself, and the wicked one does not touch him. 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one.

- : This clearly states that the whole world is under the sway of the Devil and his demons except, those who are born of God. The only defense against the dark forces of this world are through God. This closely relates to Mathew 12:43 to Mathew 12:45, where evil spirits can inhabit people who do not have God's spirit in them (thus being an empty house). This leaves them open to the influences of evil.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

- : At first, this verse seems a bit out of context with the rest of the section and just 'tacked-onto' the end as another relevant note to the area. After closer consideration it like is relevant to the area but also closely related to the section. It's very clear that the wicked one and evil spirits are very big on symbolism and idolatry. Idolatry takes the focus away from God and puts us humans essentially under a spell, where we are then under the wicked one, or possessed in a way. The idols are directly linked to this, because they are a means to an end for evil. Therefore, keeping away from idols will directly help us to keep the wicked one from touching us by taking away his power and influences.

Summary:

Chapter 1: Greeting the Elect Lady

[1]The Elder, To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth, [2]because of the truth which abodes in us and will be with us forever: [3]Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

[4]I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father. [5]And now I plead with you, lady, not as through I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.

- : He clearly states here that this is not anything new, but something that has existed from the beginning and is just reiterating it in a different way.

[6]This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

[7]For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and antichrist. [8]Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward.

- : Does this suggest that we can receive a partial reward?

[9]Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. [10]If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him; [11]for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

John's Farewell Greeting

[12]Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. [13]The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.
